ANIMALS' SHELTER

LEGACY INFORMATION PACK

Honouring the past. Protecting the future.

WELCOME

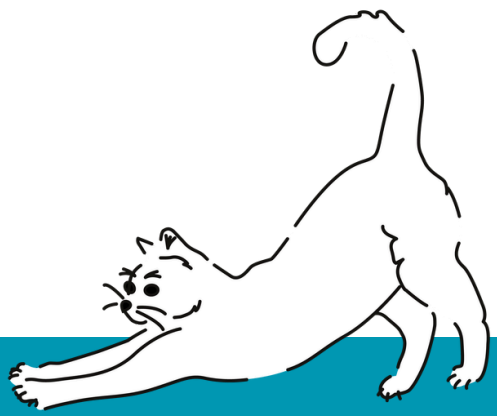

THANK YOU FOR CONSIDERING LEAVING A GIFT IN YOUR WILL TO THE JSPCA.

For more than 150 years, the JSPCA has been there for Jersey's animals. A gift in your Will can help ensure that animals continue to receive care, protection and another chance in the years ahead.

Your family and loved ones should always come first.
If, after providing for them, you choose to remember the JSPCA, we would be enormously grateful.

Chief Executive Officer, JSPCA

THE LEGACY OF FRANCES ELIZABETH WILSON

In 1913, Frances Elizabeth Wilson established Jersey's Animals' Shelter, creating a place where animals in need could receive protection and care.

In 1936, the Animals' Shelter formally joined with the JSPCA, which had been founded in 1868. The amalgamation helped ensure that Frances's work could continue after her retirement.

More than a century later, her influence can still be seen in every animal given care, protection and another chance.

Frances Elizabeth Wilson could never have imagined how many animals her work would help in the years to come.

More than a century later, the influence of her work continues through the JSPCA.

The world has changed, but the need to protect animals has not.

Frances Elizabeth Wilson and the original JSPCA team

Your family and loved ones should always come first. If, after providing for them, you choose to remember the JSPCA, your gift could help protect Jersey's animals for years to come.

ONE WOMAN'S LEGACY. COUNTLESS ANIMALS HELPED.

ONE LIFE CHANGED

When Milo arrived at the JSPCA, he was underweight, frightened and suffering from several health conditions. He needed immediate veterinary treatment and was tube-fed for several days.

With weeks of expert treatment and nursing care, Milo slowly regained his strength. As he recovered, his cheeky and determined personality began to shine through.

Today, Milo is a healthy, happy cat. His recovery shows what skilled care, patience and the chance to heal can achieve.

> We see quite a lot of older patients like Milo, his chances of survival were very low. Seeing any animal arrive to us in such a poor state and make a miraculous recovery is incredibly special. Sadly not every animal recovers but when they do, it really is the best feeling.

EVERY LIFE MATTERS

Three wild baby rabbits arrived at the JSPCA after their nest was accidentally destroyed.

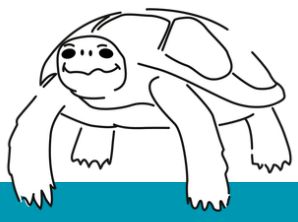

They were hand-raised by a member of the clinic team, grew strong and were successfully released back into their natural habitat.

When this rare juvenile cuckoo arrived at the JSPCA with a damaged wing, it needed specialist care and rehabilitation.

Unable to return to the wild, the young bird spent several weeks resting and recovering while receiving expert care.

Every animal deserves kindness, care and the chance to return to where they belong.

SOME ANIMALS NEED URGENT CARE.
OTHERS SIMPLY NEED TIME.

THE DIFFERENCE YOU CAN MAKE

Lola's Second Chance

When Lola arrived at the JSPCA, she needed a calm and understanding home where she could feel safe and secure.

For more than a year, the team gave Lola the care, training and time she needed to build her confidence.

Then the right family came along.

Today, Lola is thriving in her new home, proving that some animals simply need more time to find where they belong.

> It feels like she has always been with us. She has us wrapped around her little paws and we are so lucky that she waited patiently to find her forever home with us.

THEY MAY NEVER KNOW YOUR NAME, BUT YOUR LEGACY COULD CHANGE THEIR LIVES.

THE ANIMALS WHO NEED US TOMORROW

THEY MAY NOT HAVE BEEN BORN YET.

The JSPCA has protected Jersey's animals for generations. A gift in your Will could help ensure that care continues long into the future.

It could help provide veterinary treatment, safe shelter, rehabilitation and wildlife assistance for animals whose lives may one day depend on us.

We cannot know which animals will need our help next. But with the support of people who choose to leave a gift, we can be ready when they do.

A GIFT IN YOUR WILL COULD HELP ENSURE THE JSPCA IS HERE WHEN THEY NEED US.

WHY LEAVE A GIFT IN YOUR WILL?

A LASTING ACT OF COMPASSION

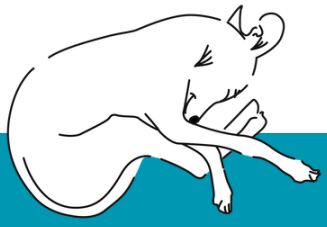

After taking care of the people and animals closest to you, you may wish to remember the JSPCA in your Will.

Gifts in Wills help provide long-term security. They allow us to plan ahead and continue protecting animals across Jersey, whatever the future brings.

Every gift matters, regardless of its size. Together, these gifts could help provide:

- Veterinary treatment
- Safe shelter and daily care
- Rehabilitation and preparation for a new home
- Rescue and care for injured wildlife
- Support for animals in need across Jersey

You do not have to choose between the people you love and the causes you care about. Even a small percentage of your estate could make a lasting difference.

EVERY GIFT MATTERS.
EVERY LEGACY MAKES A DIFFERENCE.

Four things to remember

Family comes first

You can provide for the people and animals you love before considering a gift to the JSPCA.

Every gift matters

A gift does not need to be large. Whatever its size, it could help protect Jersey's animals.

Your Will remains your decision

You choose what to leave, who should benefit and whether your wishes change in the future.

Professional advice is important

A solicitor can help ensure your Will clearly reflects your wishes and is legally valid.

A small decision today could help protect Jersey's animals for years to come.

WAYS TO LEAVE A GIFT

CHOOSE THE GIFT THAT IS RIGHT FOR YOU

There are several ways to remember the JSPCA in your Will. A solicitor can help you decide which option best reflects your wishes.

A share of your estate (residuary gift)
You can leave the JSPCA a percentage of what remains after your other gifts and commitments have been provided for. This type of gift usually keeps its value over time.

A fixed sum of money (pecuniary gift)
You can choose to leave a specific amount of money to the JSPCA.

A specific item (specific gift)
You may wish to leave property, shares or another valuable item. Please contact us before including an unusual or restricted gift.

A gift held in trust (reversionary gift)
You can arrange for someone to benefit from an asset during their lifetime, with all or part of it passing to the JSPCA afterwards.

Your solicitor can advise you on the most appropriate wording and ensure your wishes are recorded correctly.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Is it worth leaving a gift if I don't have much to leave?

Yes. Gifts of every size can help provide care and protection for animals in need.

Do I need to tell the JSPCA?

No. However, if you choose to tell us, we can thank you and keep you updated on the work your gift could support. Anything you share will be treated in confidence.

Can I change my mind?

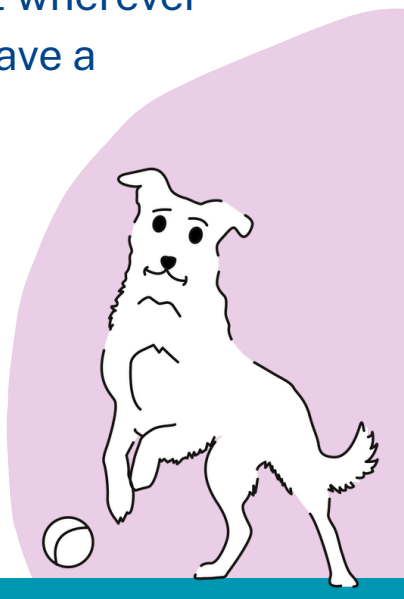

Yes. You can update your Will if your circumstances or wishes change. A legal adviser can help you make any amendments.

How often should I review my Will?

It is sensible to review your Will every few years and following any significant change in your circumstances.

Can I specify how my gift is used?

Yes, although an unrestricted gift allows us to use it wherever animals need help most. Please speak to us if you have a particular area of work in mind.
